THE GENTLEMAN.—He is above a mean thing. He cannot stoop to a mean fraud. He invades no secret in the keeping of another. He betrays no secrets confided to his own keeping. He never struts in borrowed plumage. He never takes selfish advantage of our mistakes. He uses no ignominious weapons in controversy. He never stabs in the dark. He is ashamed of himself. He is not one thing to the man's face and another behind his back. If by accident he comes in possession of his neighbor's secrets he passes upon them an act of instant oblivion. He bears sealed packages without tampering with the wax. Papers not meant for his eyes, whether they flutter at his window or lie open before him in unguarded exposure, are sacred to him. He invades privacy of others, however the sentry sleeps. Bolts and bars, locks and keys, hedges and pickets, bonds and securities, notice to trespassers, are none of them for him. He may be trusted by himself out of sight—near the thinnest partition—anywhere. He buys no offices, he sells none, he intrigues for none. He would rather fail of his rights than win them through dishonor. He will eat honest bread. He tramples on no sensitive feeling. He insults no man. If he have rebuke for another, he is straightforward, open, manly. In short, whatever he judges honorable he practices toward every man.

THE LAST MAN IN THE BARBERS SHOP.—We have seen many illustrations of misery, many that move the hardest heart to pity; but nothing can be more touching to an observer, nothing better defines misery, than a man in a barber shop, with a dozen or so ahead of him, waiting to be shaved. It is impossible for any one who never has experienced it, to know how much nerve is required to pass successfully through this ordeal. Different natures, of course, experience different degrees of misery as they wait. "The poor but virtuous young man, struggling with a moustache" (the fading hue of which has brought him again to the tonsorial artist), having an engagement with Susan—who has told him, "anything but a feller as isn't on time"—can probably be put down as the subject of most abject wretchedness and despair, as he enters and looks around upon "les miserables" who are "ahead" of him, the last of whom unguiles with his misery a grim satisfaction, that some one comes after him.

There is music to him in the barber's "next," as it lessens the distance between him and his ambitious goal; and when it finally appeals to him, he experiences a joy that the honied words of flattery fail to bring to him who has found fame.—Lynchburg Virginian.

BROWNLOW is abusing Colonel John Baxter, a Tennessee Conservative, as a traitor, because he was a candidate in 1861 for the Confederate Congress. Upon which the Knoxville Commercial asserts positively that "Col. Baxter was a candidate at the earnest solicitation, and by the advice of William G. Brownlow, who, at that time, pledged himself to support the Southern Confederacy at an opportunity as he could do both parties, and disgrace himself in the eyes of both parties," and further charges that "William G. Brownlow, in two issues of September, 1861, did take grounds to support the Southern Confederacy, and had it not been for the coldness shown by Brownlow to the rebels, and the earnest pleadings of Judge Trigg and Colonel John Williams to prevent his joining the rebel cause, he would have done as he contemplated at that time, and joined the Southern Confederacy." All of which, however, only shows that the Governor of Tennessee is neither much more nor much less honest than some other Southern Radicals we wot of.—Rich. Whig.

THE WONDERS OF TELEGRAPHING.—It deserves to be chronicled among the most extraordinary achievements of the Atlantic Telegraph, that when every citizen of London awoke on Thursday morning, eager to read an account of the great Derby races, the people of one-fourth of the United States were also reading an account of the previous day's racing, as long, graphic and interesting, as usually appears in a London paper. The Derby races closed at a late hour on Wednesday evening, and on Thursday morning we had in this country a long description of the events of the previous day, a list of the horses which ran, their names, ages, and all the incidents and accompaniments of a grand field day among the racers. And on the very day of the race, long and the vast throng had returned from the race course, and while the races were going on, the sporting men in New York were in possession of private telegrams as to the late of the day.—Richmond Times.

A NEW BOOK.—We clip the following from a Northern paper:
"Rev. Dr. Dabney, author of the Life of General (Stonewall) Jackson, is preparing a new work in defence of his native State, Va., and of the South. He has devoted much time and research to this treatise, and has collected the much novel and instructive information for the vindication of the Southern people. The Radical questions in debate are subjected to a thorough and searching enquiry. It is highly praised by eminent statesmen who have seen the proof-sheets. It will be published within a few weeks by Messrs. E. J. Hale & Son, 16 Murray street, New York."

The subject of impression at first sight was being talked over at the supper-table, when the lady whose duty it was to preside "over the cups and tea," said she always formed an opinion of a person at first sight, and generally found it to be correct.

"Madam," said the youngest son, in a shrill voice that attracted the attention of all present. "Well, my dear, what is it?" replied the fond mother.

"I want to know what was your opinion of me when you first saw me?"

The question gave a sudden turn to the conversation.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

KNOW THY DESTINY.—MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrist, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located her office at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomorph, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can attest. She will send, when desired, a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications strictly confidential. Address, in confidence, Madame E. F. Thornton, P. O. Box 223 Hudson, N. Y. mh 22-ly

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, rosy complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CROCIANIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & Co., Chemists, No. 3, West Fayette st., SYRACUSE, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same. mh 12-ly

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE!—MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulist Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomorph, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can attest. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information. Address, in confidence, Madame Remington, P. O. Box 247, West Troy, New York. mh 12-ly

REPARATOR CAPILLI.
Throw away your false frizzes, your swivels, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig; Come again, come ye curling irons, curling and rejoice in your own ruinous hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the hair to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your curiosity does not keep it, send us $1, and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address the hair, and at the same time give it a beautiful, glossy appearance. The Crisper Coma not only curls the hair, but invigorates, beautifies and cleanses it; is highly and delightfully perfumed, and is the most perfect preparation of the kind ever offered to the American public.—

leaving the skin white and clear as a baby's.

ASTROLOGY.
AT THE WORLD ASTONISHED
By the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist,
MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophic crosses in love, loss of relatives and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malice stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, sent by mail with distance can consult the business you are best most successful and satisfaction to themselves, as if
